FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – October 3, 2017

Fairfield announces board and commission openings

Fairfield, Ohio - City Council is accepting applications from Fairfield residents who are interested in serving on the Tax Board of Appeals, Parks & Recreation Board or Planning Commission.

Residents interested in the Parks & Recreation Board or Planning Commission must reside in the First Ward. These are partial terms that will commence upon appointment by Council and expire on March 31, 2019. The Tax Board of Appeals appointments are two-year terms.

Some of the duties of the Parks and Recreation Board are: determine programs and activities of the City regarding parks and recreation; authorize monies and award contracts for the operation and maintenance of the City's parks and recreation programs; adopt rules and regulations and systems of streets, boulevards, or parkways as the Board believes to be in the best interest of the efficient and orderly use and operation of the City's parks and recreation areas.

*For more information about the Parks & Recreation Board,

Some of the duties of the Planning Commission are: authorize plans and maps, development of and modifications to the comprehensive plan, location and character of public utilities, the use of land and the zoning thereof, subdivision and other land development regulations, and development, redevelopment and renewal of the City.

*For more information about the Planning Commission,

Information on the Tax Board of Appeals: appointees must not be employees, elected officials or contractors with the City currently or five years preceding their term. Also, a board member cannot serve on another board simultaneously. There is no set meeting schedule, but the board would meet after appointment and within 60 days of when a tax appeal is filed with the Tax Administrator, which is rare.

All positions on Fairfield's boards and commissions are non-compensated volunteer positions. City of Fairfield residents interested in applying can obtain an application in the Clerk of Council's office at the Fairfield Municipal Building, 5350 Pleasant Avenue, or applications can be submitted at www.fairfield-city.org. The application deadline is October 27, 2017.
